Please keep in mind there will be rain outs and weeks to make up --- In case of rain out - we will follow the by weeks - not the date - if week 3 gets rained out - the fo week, we will play week 3 schedule. Playoffs will start the following Thursday after week 11 and might be played over 2 weeks. At the end of the 11 weeks, we will b having round robin tournaments as long as people want to play and the weather cooperates. Maybe $5.00 per person with winners take all at the end of the night
